enough to secure the services of Mrs. Sara Snowden Mitchell for her afternoon at the club to-morrow at half past 4 o'clock. Mrs. Mitchell is president of the Plastic Club of Philadelphia, and is a very interesting speaker as well as a most attractive woman. Her subject will be "Some English Portrait Painters and Their Influence."

On Wednesday afternoon Miss Daniel will meet the literature class to discuss "Milton and His Times," and on Thursday evening, at 8:15 o'clock, the December tournament will be played, with compass whist as the game. Members are entitled to invite gentlemen partners, and must register their tables by 10 o'clock Thursday morning.

On Monday, December 19, former Governor Andrew J. Montague will tell the club members something of the "Progress of International Arbitration." Mrs. Charles M. Perrell will be chairman of that afternoon.

Called Meeting.
The Confederate Memorial Literary Society is requested to assemble at the northwest corner of Third and Main Streets on Tuesday afternoon, December 14, at 2 o'clock. The society will participate in the unveiling of a tablet marking the site of the Robertson Hospital, which was in charge of Miss Sallie L. Tompkins during the War between the States.

Invitations Issued.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clarke Tinsley have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Alice Richard, to John Daniel Hix. The ceremony will take place Wednesday morning, December 21, at the home of the bride's parents, 3227 Grove Avenue.

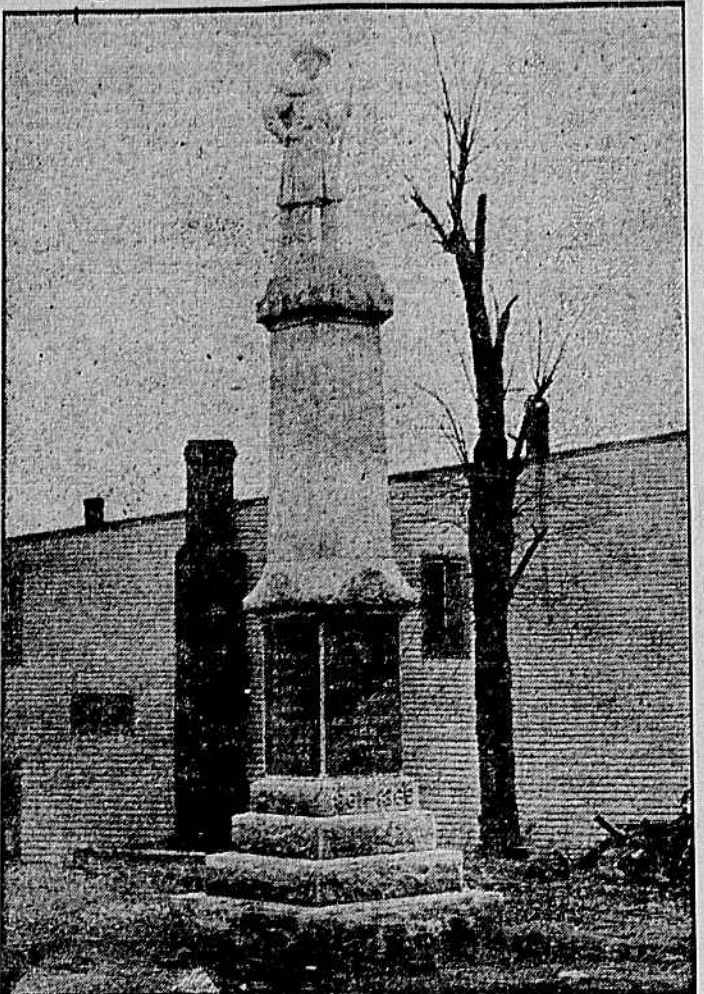

Return to Boy.
Misses Lucy B. Homes and Ella P. Homes, daughters of Judge W. E. Homes, of Boynton, Va., who have been the guests of their sister, Mrs. W. L. Clark, in her apartment at the Hanover, for the past several weeks, have returned to their home. The Misses Homes will entertain a party of friends for the Christmas holidays in Boynton.

Blanks to Be Returned.
Application blanks for crosses of honor must be returned to the registrar, Mrs. B. A. Biehn, at 2521 Grove Avenue, by December 15. The next bestowal of crosses will be on January 19, 1911, and all blanks must be returned to the registrar four weeks before the date of bestowal.

Meets Tuesday Morning.
There will be a called meeting of the Branch R. Allen Auxiliary Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, in Murphy's Hotel annex. Business of importance is to be transacted, and all members of this organization are asked to be present.

Monument to Confederate Dead of Franklin County, Recently Unveiled at Rocky Mount

Rocky Mount was the home of General Jubal A. Early, and Franklin county furnished to the Confederacy fifteen companies, between 1,500 and 2,000 soldiers.

The beautiful stone unveiled at Rocky Mount Thursday is inscribed on two sides with a list of these companies. On the front is this inscription:

"To the Memory of the Confederate Dead of Franklin County. Erected by Jubal A. Early Chapter, U. D. C., and R. H. Fishburne, Jointly."

The fourth side bears a tracing of the Confederate flag, while the dates, 1861-1865, appear on the base of the monument.

It stands in the north corner of the Courthouse Green, corner Main and Court Streets, and is twenty-three feet high. The shaft is of North Carolina granite, surmounted by a beautiful statue of Canada marble, representing a Confederate private at parade rest. The late Senator John W. Daniel urged the erection of this monument and had promised to make the unveiling address.

The Jubal A. Early Camp, which was organized in 1902, numbers about fifty members. During all these years the Daughters have labored faithfully for the erection of the monument, and the generosity of their ally, R. H. Fishburne, of Roanoke, a Franklin veteran, made possible the erection of the memorial at this time.

The monument was unveiled in the presence of about 125 veterans, the Sons of Veterans, Jubal A. Early Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, and many visitors, the addresses having been made by Congressman Saunders and Attorney-General Williams.

Raleigh Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., December 10.—The overshadowing feature of the week here socially was the reception and ball Thursday night given by the Capital Club in celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of this noted social organization. There were probably 1,000 members, and guests parading. The receiving line included President and Mrs. H. E. Litchford, Governor and Mrs. W. B. Grimes, Secretary and Treasurer and Mrs. W. W. Roberts, Dr. R. H. Lewis, who was the first president of the club twenty-five years ago, and Mrs. Lewis, and the following other former presidents and their wives: Dr. and Mrs. James McKee, Colonel and Mrs. Charles E. Johnson. Dr. McKee was president for twenty years. The club rooms were beautifully decorated for the occasion and for the ball the dancing was led by Mr. and Mrs. James McKimmon. The club has occupied its own club building for twelve years, the property being valued at upwards of $50,000, the membership including 150 resident, and 75 non-resident members.

Friday afternoon Mrs. W. B. Grimes gave a lovely afternoon tea in honor

Wilmington Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Wilmington, N. C., December 10.—Society is at present looking more towards the Christmas festivities than for present social functions. During the Yuletide there will be a number of brilliant events, including the Christmas dances of Wilmington's two leading german clubs. The L'Arise has decided on the night of December 11 for its Christmas dance, but the L'Agile has not reached a decision as yet. There will also be a large number of private entertainments. Much interest is being shown by society, too, in a visit to be made this city by the Princeton Glee Club, just before the Christmas holidays start. There are a number of Wilmingtonians attending Princeton, and hence the club will be given a royal reception here, and will be showered with social attentions.

One of the most delightful events of the week was a reception given by Mrs. E. ... Bryan, at her handsome home on North Fifth Street, in honor of Mrs. Eugene Q. LeGrand, one of the winter brides. The home was prettily decorated, and delicious refreshments were served. Those in the receiving line, besides the host and her guest of honor, were Mesdames Charles ... and Fred W. Dick, S. W. Sanders, Joseph H. Waters, C. MacRae, Morrison W. Divine and G. Herbert Smith and Misses Maude Kingsbury and Fanny Williams.

The Hospital Circle of the King's Daughters, which is one of the leading societies in Wilmington, held its annual meeting this week, and elected officers, as follows: William Lattimer, president; Mrs. W. L. Parsley, first vice-president; Mrs. Charles Rutland, second vice-president, and Mrs. Allan Nichols, secretary and treasurer. A delightful feature in connection with the monthly meeting this week of Concordia Society was the celebration of the thirty-sixth anniversary of the society. Dainty refreshments were served, and those who received the guests were Mesdames M. W. Jacob, S. A. Schloss, Lena Goodman, Adolph Rosemann, A. Liebmam, S. Sternberger, N. Nathan, and Joseph Schloss, the latter of New York City. An informal banquet was held Thursday night by the members of the Wilmington Credit Bureau. It was a big success, and was largely attended. Last night the Carolina Yacht Club, which recently decided to keep its large and handsome club building on Wrightsville Beach open during the winter, as well as summer, held a big frolic. The occasion was made doubly interesting as the prizes won in the regatta during the past summer were awarded. These prizes consist of the Jones-Walters trophy, a solid silver cup, being voted by Henry Walters and Pembroke Jones, won by Colonel John Van B. Metts; the club's regular cup, won by Captain Edwin A. Metts; sailing trophy, S. P. Cowan's yacht, and the booby prize, won by R. G. Rankin, Jr. The committee that had charge of the affair, consists of Clayton Giles, Jr., W. D. McMillan, Jr., and F. A. Lord.

Pinehurst Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Pinehurst, N. C., December 10.—Sports and amusements are occupying the attention of visitors, the excellence of quail shooting attracting many to the covers. In six days B. G. Royal and E. R. Johnson, of Philadelphia, bagged ninety-six quail, five woodcock, four doves, six rabbits and two squirrels, and their kill is not above the average. J. H. Wesson, Donald Wesson and Victor ... of Springfield, Mass., scored seventy in four days' shooting, and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Townsend, of Brookline; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. Benedict Crowell, of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. I. D. H. Ralph, of Philadelphia; Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Brown, of Montclair, are among others who have had fine sport. Socially, affairs are informal in their character. Monday, Mrs. Leonard Tufts, of Boston, entertained members of the Village Club with afternoon tea at the Mystic cottage, and dinners, dances and bridge have occupied the attention of visitors at the Holly Inn. Manner and Mrs. H. W. Priest, of the Carolina, arrived early in the week, and are busy preparing the hotel for its opening, January 7.
